

HyperTerminal Directions for sending a text file:

Make sure that monitor, mcom and mcon are all set to OFF.

Start your connection with your destination station using HyperTerminal.

In you text file, it is recommended that the start of the file indicate START and that the list line indicate END.

1. Tell your destination station that you are fixing to send a text list.
2. Click on TRANSFER, SEND TEXT FILE.
3. Locate the text file you want to send and click on OK.

The result is what looks like you are typing very fast.

HyperTerminal directions to receive a or capture text to a file:

1. After the station has indicated that they are sending a file, click on TRANSFER, CAPTURE TEXT.
2. You will get a prompt asking for the location to save the text file to. Save it to your desired location.

At the end of the transfer, click on TRANSFER, END CAPTURE.